RE: 2012 June Monthly Report and 2012 Year End Report

Dear Mr. Butler:

The Independent Community Bankers of America Political Action Committee (ICBPAC) is in receipt of your letters dated May 3, 2013 regarding the above referenced reports. Each issue raised in your letters is addressed below.

June Monthly Report

You have notified ICBPAC that the Deb Fischer for US Senate Committee (Committee) did not have primary debt at the time of our contribution in May, 2012. While we had confirmed at the time that the Committee did have primary debt, and the Committee reported the contribution as such, we have sought a refund based on your representation that the Committee did not have such a debt. A copy of the refund request will be mailed to your attention.

Year-End Report

1. You have asked for confirmation that a transfer from the Massachusetts Bankers PAC Federal Fund was in fact from that Committee's federal account. We have reviewed the contribution check and can confirm that the receipt was from the federal account as reported. Therefore, we need not amend our report with respect to this receipt.

2. You indicate that Ted Cruz for Senate did not have a primary debt at the time of our contribution on November 27, 2012. We have received a refund from that Committee which will be reported on our April Monthly report.

3. Finally, you state that our November 20, 2012 contribution to Heller for Senate was made after the general election. This reflects a data entry mistake. This contribution was designated to 2012 General Debt and reported by the Heller Committee as such. We have therefore amended our report to properly reflect that this was a 2012 General debt contribution.

Thank you for bringing these matters to our attention.

Dear Mr. Evnen:

The Federal Election Commission has notified the Independent Community Bankers of America Political Action Committee that we must seek a refund of our contribution dated May 31, 2012 which you reported on June 6, 2012. While we confirmed with your committee that you had primary debt at the time our contribution was made, and you also reported the contribution as for primary debt, the FEC informs us that the Committee had no primary debt at the time of receipt of the contribution. Thus, because the contribution was made last year we must seek a refund from the Deb Fischer for US Senate Committee.

Please issue a refund at your earliest convenience. You may send the refund to my attention at the address listed below.

Sincerely,
